From the Desk of Bishop Henry

Fellowship is defined as "A mutual sharing between groups of people with the same interests." We share a common faith. We share a heavenly hope. We have a common salvation. In other words, we have things in common but, in order to be in fellowship there must be others .

For the early Church fellowship was vital for growth. It was during their times of fellowship that they studied the apostles' doctrine, shared in the breaking of bread, and prayed for one another and because of fellowship they had all things in common with one another. (Acts 2:42-44).

To be in fellowship you must be living right. Remember that light has no fellowship with darkness (Ephesians 5:11, II Corinthians 6:14). Be steadfast in your fellowship for you can be out of fellowship because of wrong associations. (I Corinthians 15:33).
