Concerning the Judgement

God is the true and righteous judge, and he will always judge right (Psalms 7:11). There will be no misfits in Heaven and there will be none out of place in Hell. All will stand before God and be individually judged. (Romans 14:10)

CHURCH NOTES

The leadership has announced protocols to attend worship services at Southside have been revised. At entrance to our building members and visitors will not be required to do a temperature check or present a vaccination card however, masks are still required to attend worship services in the sanctuary. We are looking forward to welcoming each one of you through our doors.

If you need to pick up communion or drop-off your offering, call first to make sure someone is available at the building.

Thank you to those who have made sacrificial offerings towards the repairs to our building. We have passed inspection and now the inside finishing work begins. Please continue your support. Give what you can with a "glad heart." God will bless our efforts.

Southside will be providing an opportunity for you to "Feed a Family for The Holiday." Food will be given first to those in the household of faith and then to those in our community. Fresh ready-made dinners will be available on Saturday, November 19, 2022. If you know of a family in need or just to donate your time and funds, contact Chris Baccus or Belinda Henderson. Thank you for your support.

God gave the judgement to His son (John 5:22, 8:16) "For the Son of Man is going to come in His Father's glory with His angels, and then He will reward each person according to what He has done." (Matthew 16:27).

Remember that judgment will be according to God's Word. (John 12:48). that the Word of God endures forever (I Peter 1:25; Matthew 24:35). So, when you stand before the final court of justice, the words will be final and absolute. Will it be, "Well done good and faithful servant (Matthew 25-23) or "Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels." (Matthew 25.41) Your sentence will be irreversible. There will be no court of appeals. There is no higher court. No mistakes will be made. No lawyers will be present. There will be no escape.
